THE AUD SEMESTER IN DUBAI PROGRAM

Building Global Citizens

Students choosing The American University in Dubai will find it is committed to fostering intercultural understanding.

THE AUD SEMESTER IN DUBAI PROGRAM

is designed to provide students with a snapshot of the Middle East through the study of language, history and culture – with specific attention accorded to Dubai, a modern city-state whose economic progress and broad-scale success has captured the imagination of the world.

Students will live and study on a campus where over 100 nationalities are represented and will benefit from the integration of co-curricular activities with traditional classroom instruction. Professors and professionals join forces in providing students with a true-to-life exposure to the Middle East that is rewarding, both intellectually and in terms of personal development.

THE UAE EXPERIENCE

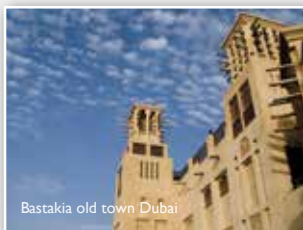

A course that focuses on Dubai. Material of a historical, geographical, cultural, political, and commercial nature is integrated so that students obtain an understanding of what Dubai is today, of how it fits into the world, and those factors that have shaped its development. The course makes use of guest speakers from various sectors of Dubai's society and numerous field trips guarantee student exposure to important Dubai institutions, organizations, and landmarks.

AN INTRODUCTION TO MIDDLE EAST HISTORY

This course will examine the culture in the lands of the Near East as a distinctive period in the history of the region, beginning with the eclipsing of the Byzantine and Sassanid empires in the early 7th century and ending with the collapsing of the Ottoman Empire in the aftermath of WWI.

ISLAM: HISTORICAL AND SOCIETAL ASPECTS

This course is a study of the Islamic tradition and its development during various historical periods. The course focuses on the beliefs and practices of Muslims across diverse cultural landscapes as well as on the major schools of thought within Islam. The scope of the course extends to the contemporary period to include an analysis of modern intellectual movements.
