

1. POLICY NAME: APPEAL OF TERMINATION

2. POLICY CATEGORY: POLICIES AND PROCEDURES – GRADUATE STUDENTS

3. POLICY STATEMENT:

A student who has been terminated from the graduate program may be readmitted by filing an appeal to the Program Director, within fifteen days of notification. The School housing the program will reach a decision upon critically assessing the student's academic performance, his or her overall contributions to the classroom learning environment, and his or her prospect for successfully completing the program. The School's decision must be ratified by the Provost and Chief Academic Officer, and will be communicated by the School to the student in writing within five days from receiving the appeal. If the appeal is denied, the student has the right to submit a final appeal of the decision to the President within three days from notification of the denial. The President's decision will be final and will be communicated to the student in writing within three days from receiving the appeal.
